

Part of
'The PTC Nature Sessions' series

CAN BEAVERS SAVE OUR WETLANDS?

FREE TALK

The UK has lost many of its key wetlands over the last century. One potential way to restore these important habitats is through the reintroduction of Eurasian beavers. Dr Melanie Baker (University of Liverpool) will discuss the ecological impacts of beavers during the Cheshire Wildlife Trust's five-year beaver trial and how they can restore out wetlands.

WEDS
17TH JUNE

7PM
POYNTON
CIVIC HALL

Book your place via the link: bit.ly/beavertalkjune or by calling 01625 872 238