

JOHN WARING

T/14238064 Lance Corporal John Waring, 398 (Airborne)
Div Comp Coy, Royal Army Service Corps.

Born 25th March 1909 in South Manchester, son of boot maker, James Henry and Bertha (nee Moores) Waring of 45 Royal Street, Ardwick, Manchester. His siblings at that time were May and James.

In the summer of 1937 John married Ethel Clayton, registered at Macclesfield. By 1939 they were living at 143 Dickens Lane, Poynton and John was employed as a stonemason's yardman at a builder's merchants.

Lance Corporal John Waring died on war service on Wednesday 20th September 1944, aged 35 years and is buried at Groesbeek Canadian War Cemetery, Gelderland, Netherlands.

C.W.G.C. Ref: Coll. Grave, C. 9. 12.

