POYNTON PLAYERS NEXT PERFORMANCE

ALL THE ORDINARY ANGELS by Nick Leather

Family patriarch Giuseppe unexpectedly announces he wants to come in from the cold and retire from running the family ice cream business. But which of his sons will take his place – dreamy Lino who can make gelato but not sell it, or greedy Rocco, who's useless at making ice cream but could sell it to Polar Bears?

As the pair are pitted against each other, Lino's unsuitably feisty fiancée Lulu and Rocco's wife Bernie are desperate to join the game. But who will win and at what cost?

All The Ordinary Angels is no ordinary play. You'll scream for ice cream!

Tickets cost just over £11.60 including booking fee. Available at poyntonplayers.co.uk
