

THE WILD FOOTPRINT SCAVENGER HUNT

Woodland animals have taken over Poynton shops! Can you find out who they are and bring them back to the Civic Hall?
Turn your map over to find out how!

You can look for clues between 12pm and 3pm in local businesses

THE WILD FOOTPRINT SCAVENGER HUNT

Follow the footprints on the map to each Poynton shop and discover which woodland animal is hiding there. Collect a token at each stop, and once you have eight, bring them back to the Civic Hall to take part in a craft activity and receive a prize.

This foot print belongs to a.....

I live in a .....and some can be lived in by generations of the same family for hundreds of years!

This foot print belongs to a.....

My eyes are on the side of my head, so I have 360 degree vision to look for.....

This foot print belongs to a.....

I don't use my ears to listen, I use my..... to sense vibrations.

This foot print belongs to a.....

I can make over forty different .....

This foot print belongs to a.....

I can hold my breath under water for .....

This foot print belongs to a.....

If I am caught by a predator, I can ..... the tip of my tail to escape safely!

This foot print belongs to a.....

In the winter, my ears .....

This foot print belongs to a.....

I can have up to 7000 .....on my back.